

There is very little advance notice that some of our boys will arrive home on leave or furlough, either from overseas duty or from various war activities throughout America, and it is mighty nice for us to prowlf downstreet mornings to meet up and shake hands with these Friends and Neighbors who are with us for a short stay with their home folks. Among those who have enjoyed the atmosphere of Provincetown, their home, were: JOHN COSTA of the Merchant Marine; ROY BLANEY, U. S. Coast Guard; EDWARD SILVA, Lieutenant, U. S. C. G.; RAYMOND JOSEPH, Merchant Marine; IRVING MALCHMAN, Private, Army Air Corp; NATHAN MALCHMAN, Sergeant, and Asst. Editor of the Base Army Paper, FERR GRAM, Memphis, Tenn.; Midshipman CHARLES WESTCOTT, of Annapolis; DR. MARTIN B. TINKER, JR., Surgeon, U. S. A., serving in the Pacific Area; WILLIAM COSTA, Chief, U. S. C. G., home from overseas duty; JOE LEMA from Camp Barkeley, Texas; JAMES CORDEIRO, U. S. N.; MANUEL LEWIS, Yeoman, U. S. C. G.; PAUL MCKELLAR, U. S. N. If I have missed any of you boys—it's because I wasn't downstreet. Joseph J. Silvia has joined up with the U. S. N. MISS MILDRED GIBBS has joined the WAC and is stationed at Oglethorpe, Georgia, for training. "Good luck, Millie," and I'll put you right next to CUSTODIO J. SILVIA, who has just joined the Navy—and "Good luck to you, Cust." And late arrivals to breeze in town all smiles are: Wilfred (Red) Slade, Storekeeper 3rd class, U. S. N. John Atkins, T-4 Medical Corps, U. S. A., and Franklin M. Young, A. M. M. 1st class, attached to the Catalina Flying "Black Cats" in the South Pacific for the past 20 months. Frankie is home on 30 days leave and is spending most of his time in the woods making the bunnies run faster. (Try and stop one once in a while, Frank—we're hungry. Shep.)
