

October 1853

Provincetown — The Cape Cod Association of Boston has presented to the town a beautiful marble tablet noting the landing of the Pilgrims here. It will be placed upon the new High School and Town House soon to be dedicated.

1491

Printed in the Provincetown High School Budget of June 1872, the grand-daddy of the now present booklet, published at Graduation, namely the Long Pointer, ran this advertisement. . . .

Wanted: The old woman who swept the cobwebs from the sky, to visit the schoolroom and perform the same work for us, and most especially is the entry in need of her labors. . . .

PROVINCETOWN MASS

W. G. STIFF

The Town Hall and Pilgrim Congregational Church from Winslow Street. High School is on the lot at right of man. ----- About 1925.

The Town Hall, old High School and Universalist Church from the West - 1925