

er. They were the great; few attained that respected distinction after a lifetime devoted to seeking perfection. Others have taken up from where they left off but have contented themselves with mass producing only what these men left behind them.

The era in which his like labored is what makes history. Although the name Gardner no longer appears on the builder's nameplate he so proudly fastened on the face of the water tight bulkhead of each boat he produced, the lapse of time has failed to erase his memory.

1743

Surf at Peaked Hill Bars, Provincetown, Mass.
(First landing place of the Pilgrims, Nov. 11, 1620, O. S.)

217 SAND DUNES AND BEACH, CAPE COD, MASS.

9-2126

