NEW BEACH BATHHOUSE, a facility operated by the State, will shut down for the season at the close of business on Labor Day, George Leyden, superintendent, announced today. All facilities will at that time be closed to the public; no tolls will be collected after that date, and there will be no lifeguards on duty after that time. Mr. Leyden also announced that until that time motel, hotel and rooming house owners should advise their tenants that parking regulations at the beach will be rigidly enforced.

Now called Herring Cove Beach
