ARCHITECTURAL DESCRIPTION

see continuation sheet

Describe architectural features. Evaluate the characteristics of this building in terms of other buildings in the community.

11 Alden Street is a 1-story, 5-bay dwelling, oriented to the north. The side gable roof is clad in asphalt shingles, and the building is clad in wood shingles. Partial cornice returns; interior brick chimney. The former primary entrance, located in a 1-story gable roofed enclosed vestibule adjacent to the street, is no longer used; a storm door is suspended with no stair access. The primary entrance is now located on the north façade. Fenestration includes single-pane wood awning windows, and Chicago-style windows with fixed center window and flanking 4-pane casements are located on the west side. Retractable awnings shade windows adjacent to the street.

see continuation sheet

Discuss the history of the building. Explain its associations with local (or state) history. Include uses of the building, and the role(s) the owners/occupants played within the community.
