DAVID MATEAS

DAVID MATIAS

David is a twenty-eight year old actor and writer born and raised in Texas. He received his B.A. in Speech and Drama from Trinity University in 1983 and his M.A. in Theatre Arts from the University of North Dakota in 1988. He has performed in Electra, Richard III, Servant of Two Masters, As You Like It, and Exit the King. His favorite roles include the Wig Maker in Roshamon, The Historical Event in How I Got That Story, and Saul in As Is, for which he was nominated for the Ilene Ryan Award. He has appeared in the Provincetown Theatre Company's productions of The Real Thing, and most recently in Dracula. He has directed several plays, including a special one act play written by and presented to playwright Tom Stoppard. His experience also includes workshops with Edward Albee, Liv Ullman, Ruby Dee, and Ozzie Davis.
